

Wieland Risse

Executive Vice President Business Development

Senior manager with 30 years of experience in the global logistics industry with a particular focus on project freight and logistics. With more than 10 years living in Asia working in positions from Business Development to Operations, General Managements and Senior Management he gained particular experience not only on the business side but gained valuable experience working with professionals in the Region. Having served global operating EPC companies successfully in Europe, the United States and the Asia Pacific Region with a strong customer orientation. He has developed all necessary skills for process optimization, systems and efficient operation of projects from start to finish for the benefit of customers.

Sarah Hudson

Vice President Business Development NCSA

Has been in the logistics industry for over 25 years in senior management. Got her B.S. in Social Psychology at the Californian State University. She is very familiar with the project logistics and has also been the Terminal Manager for Cole International in Houston.

Corporate Executive Team